Interested in Fundraising and Nonprofit Work? Don't miss the 2015 Arizona State Conference this July in Prescott, Arizona.

The Association for Fundraising Professionals - Northern Arizona Chapter is hosting the 2015 Arizona Statewide Conference on Fundraising July 23-24 at the Prescott Resort. The conference is intended for professionals in the nonprofit industry, but anyone can attend with interest in the nonprofit sector. Board members, community volunteers and philanthropist will gain additional skills to work effectively in the nonprofit industry with confidence. The conference allows for full conference registration, or one-day attendance. Topics include: "Truth, Transparency, and Overhead," "The Seven Faces of Philanthropy," and "Successful Grant Writing - Elements of the Winning Proposal."

"Fundraising is about building relationships and doing good in your community, so I'm excited this conference in Prescott. There are so many things I want to achieve, yet can't always find the time to enhance my education. These educational workshops will give me the opportunity to grow," stated Tina Blake, development coordinator of the West Yavapai Guidance Clinic Foundation. Several industry leaders will be coming to speak from as far away as Florida and as close as northern Arizona.

About Association of Fundraising Professionals - Northern Arizona Chapter
The AFP Northern Arizona Chapter was established in 1992 and serves all of Northern Arizona including Flagstaff, Grand Canyon, Kingman, Prescott, Payson, the Hopi Reservation, the Navajo Reservation, Show Low and the Verde Valley. One of three AFP chapters in Arizona, this chapter prides itself on having fun while learning, networking and supporting ethical and effective fundraising in the northern Arizona area.

About Association of Fundraising Professionals - International
Since 1960, the Association of Fundraising Professionals (AFP) has inspired global change and supported efforts that generated over $1 trillion. AFP’s over 33,000 individual and organizational members raise over $100 billion annually, equivalent to one-third of all charitable giving in North America and millions more around the world.
